London quotament of averaged to-morrow. London quotations were higher to-day, and there was some buying for the foreign account, although such buying particular to the local buying in which purchases were not especially large, though in many cases from good sources. The business was better distributed than yesterday, and exhibited a broadening tendency, and total sales reached somewhat larger proportions than those of yesterday.

Noteworthy advances were made by Sugar Refining. 2 per cent; American Tobacco, 1½ per cent; Burlington, 2½ per cent; Chicago Gas, 1½ per cent; Consolidated Gas, 1½ per cent; Erle first preferred. 2 per cent; Illinois Steel, 1½ per cent; Consolidated Gas, 1½ per cent; Erle first preferred. 2 per cent; Susquehanna and Western preferred. 2½ per cent; Northwest, 2 per cent; Rock Island, 2 per cent; St. Paul, 1½ per cent; Discount rates in London Stock Exchange, American securities were strong throughout the day, and foreigners appeared more disposed to see the improvement in political conditions here. Discount rates in London were inclined to ease, despite further withdrawals from the Bank of England for shipment to this country. A large amount of gold will arrive on to-morrow's steamers.
